

A native of Virginia, Holly Henley received her B.A. from Westhampton College at the University of Richmond and her M.L.S. from the University of Maryland in College Park. Before joining the State Library in 2004, Holly held positions as a Children's Librarian and a Bookmobile Manager in public library systems, as a Teacher-Librarian overseeing a large school Library/Media Center, and as an elementary school Assistant Principal.

As State Librarian and Director of Library Services at the Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records, a division of the Arizona Secretary of State, Holly currently oversees four branches: the Arizona Talking Book Library, E-Rate Administration, Library Development, and the State of Arizona Research Library. Prior to her current position, Holly was the Deputy Director of Library Services, Director of Library Development, and Youth Services Consultant at the State Library.
