

Karen Miller has 25 years in the telecommunications industry, supporting the service and infrastructure requirements of carrier, enterprise and other customers. She is presently part of Zayo's Dark Fiber organization as a Business Development Manager and has responsibility for both existing fiber assets and expansion projects across the State of Arizona.